APPLICANTS WANTED:

Rochester City Council seeks applicants for a vacant seat on the Police Accountability Board, representing the Northwest District

Applications open through July 15

Applicants Must:

- Live in Rochester's Northwest District
- Fill out the candidate questionnaire found at cityofrochester.gov/police-accountability-board-vacancies
- Apply by July 15
- Show an interest in serving Rochester though its Police Accountability Board, and seek to uphold the Board as outlined in the City Charter
- Be able to attend PAB meetings and perform duties related to the position

About the PAB:

The Rochester Police Accountability Board is a nine-member Board, four of whom are residents from each one of Rochester's City Council Districts.

Candidates for this position must reside in Rochester's Northwest District, generally defined as the Northwest Quadrant of the City. For a more detailed definition, see the map found at cityofrochester.gov/citycouncil.

City Council created Rochester's PAB in 2019 after Council sent a ballot initiative to voters which received overwhelming support during the fall elections. City Council's objective in creating the PAB was, and remains, to bring greater public accountability to the Rochester Police Department. You can learn more about the PAB at rocpab.org.

City of Rochester, NY
Rochester City Council